

Perspective™ - August Update

August has been a busy month for the Perspective team. We had the opportunity to present Perspective at the Minnesota Assessment Conference and enjoyed meeting many of you. We have been busy adding new resources and gearing up for some exciting new functionality. Some of this month's highlights:

- More Science resources
 - We've added more science resources with even more in the queue. Additional exciting videos and interactivities will be added on September 11th.
- More High School level Reading and Mathematics resources
- Perspective usage is growing. In the last 30 days we have had:
 - 5,794 new visitors to the Educator site with an average of 187 first time visitors a day
 - 1,613 new visitors to the Family site with an average of 52 first time visitors a day
- Perspective is now an award winning Website!
 - Perspective was honored with a Distinguished Achievement Award from the Association of American Publishers in the category of Specialized Instruction, Grades 9-12, Websites.
 - A full list of winners can be found here:
<http://www.aepweb.org/awards/curricwin.htm>

Our Perspective team is putting the finishing touches on more exciting new features that we expect to release in September. For example, a new document that we presented at the conference ("Maximizing your use of Perspective") will be available on the Educator home page. For the most up-to-date information on Perspective, visit the APerspective blog at:
<http://www.pearsonperspective.com/blog/index.htm>

Encourage parents to visit <http://www.perspectiveforfamilies.com/mn> to access free supplemental materials for their children.

Educators can take advantage of our robust library of teacher-supporting materials by visiting <http://www.perspectivforeducators.com/mn> and clicking on the Teaching Resources tab.

If you have questions, comments or suggestions, post a comment at the APerspective blog:

<http://www.pearsonperspective.com/blog/index.htm>