

Walden University and Resource Training & Solutions: Partnering to Provide Educators with Quality Online Education Programs

Walden is an accredited institution that has provided an engaging learning experience for working professionals for nearly 40 years. Walden's Richard W. Riley College of Education and Leadership offers you access to nationally recognized educational experts and cutting-edge curricula with the flexibility of online learning.

Degree Programs

The Richard W. Riley College of Education and Leadership at Walden University is the choice of more than 37,000 students and alumni. In January 2008, Walden was ranked for a second time by U.S. News & World Report as having the No. 1 largest online graduate program in education by enrollment.

Our M.S. in Education program can help your staff gain advanced teaching skills for their classrooms. With 13 specializations to choose from, our program can help your teachers and their students flourish.

Our Doctor of Education (Ed.D.) or Ph.D. in Education programs can help your staff gain the skills and confidence to pursue your professional goals while giving you a solid foundation from which to strengthen your leadership capabilities.

Walden Information Sessions

Invite a Walden representative to visit your school or district when it is convenient for your staff—after school, during lunch breaks, or during faculty meetings. At the session, your staff can learn about Walden's programs and learn about funding options. By the end of the session, your educators will have the information they need to decide if they are ready to return to school and if an online university is right for them.

To schedule a personalized session for the educators in your school, contact your Walden representative, Julie McCarty at 1-952-381-1538 or julie.mccarty@waldenu.edu.

The Walden Advantage

We recognize your commitment to improving the quality of education in your classroom, in your school, and beyond. Like you, we hold ourselves to high standards.

Supportive

- Personal enrollment advisor
- Online writing resources
- Dedicated Academic Advising Team
- Free confidential counseling from experienced counselors with our Student Assistance Program
- Library services, an award-winning Student Support Team, and 24-hour technical support

Practical

- Relevant strategies that can be used immediately in the classroom
- Leading national experts showcased via DVD, including Dr. Robert J. Marzano, Dr. Dorothy S. Strickland, and Dr. Carol Ann Tomlinson
- Specializations focused on content and grade level
- Time-saving automatic registration

Affordable

- Scholarships available
- Financial plans to meet any budget
- Highly competitive tuition rates, which include books and course materials for most programs
- Through this partnership, Walden is offering Resource members an exclusive 10% tuition reduction* when they enroll in one of our Ph.D. in Education, Doctor of Education (Ed.D.), M.S. in Education, B.S. in Child Development, B.S. in Instructional Design and Technology, Minnesota state-approved‡ Teacher Preparation Program with a Master of Arts in Teaching (M.A.T.), or Endorsement Program.

For more information, visit www.WaldenU.edu/resource.

Walden University is accredited by The Higher Learning Commission and a member of the North Central Association, www.ncahlc.org.

*Not valid for Tennessee residents Only one tuition-reduction benefit may be applied to tuition and fees. Savings percentage does not apply to residency costs or other associated fees.

‡Walden University's teacher preparation program is approved by the Minnesota Board of Teaching for licensure in Minnesota. Walden's enrollment advisors can provide individuals with guidelines and other information about licensure. It remains the individual's responsibility to understand and comply with the out-of-state licensure requirements for the state in which he or she seeks to be licensed.

Walden University: Online Higher Education for Educators

At Resource Training & Solutions, it is our goal to help you—Minnesota’s educators—to pursue your higher education goals while continuing to teach. That is why we have partnered with Walden University to offer tuition savings to educators who enroll in one of Walden’s Ph.D. in Education, Doctor of Education (Ed.D.), M.S. in Education, Minnesota-state approved Post-Baccalaureate Teacher Preparation Programs, BS in Child Development, or B.S. in Instructional Design and Technology programs.

Walden is an accredited institution that has provided an engaging learning experience for educators for nearly 40 years. In January 2008, Walden was ranked for a second time by U.S. News & World Report as having the largest online graduate-level program in education by enrollment.

Walden’s Richard W. Riley College of Education and Leadership—the choice of more than 37,000 students and alumni—offers you

Access to nationally recognized educational experts through Walden’s unique online learning model

Experienced faculty who are active professionals in their field and are committed to your success

Practical, leading-edge curricula that provide you with the skills and confidence to pursue your professional goals and best practices that can be used immediately in the classroom

The flexibility of online learning and breadth of student services to help you balance your personal and professional commitments

A wide range of programs and specializations to meet your specific career goals

- Ph.D. in Education (10 specializations)
- Doctor of Education (Ed.D.) (3 specializations)
- M.S. in Education (13 specializations)
- B.S. in Child Development (3 concentrations)
- B.S. in Instructional Design and Technology (3 concentrations)
- Post-baccalaureate teacher preparation programs*

As part of our partnership with Walden, all Resource area educators who enroll in Walden’s master’s or doctoral programs in education are eligible for:

A 10% savings on tuition

A $50 application fee waiver after participating in an in-person or online session[†]

Walden also can help you identify funding options that may cover a portion or the entire cost of tuition. To learn more about Walden’s advanced degrees in education and tuition reduction[†] opportunities, please visit www.waldenu.edu/resource. Additionally, if you would like to schedule an on-site visit with a Walden representative in your area to discuss their program offerings, please contact Patrick Ford at 1-478-998-2956 or patrick.ford@waldenu.edu.

Walden University is accredited by The Higher Learning Commission and a member of the North Central Association, www.ncahlc.org; 1-312-263-0456. Walden University’s teacher preparation programs are approved by the Minnesota Board of Teaching for licensure in Minnesota. Walden’s enrollment advisors can provide individuals with guidelines and other information about licensure. It remains the individual’s responsibility to understand and comply with the out-of-state licensure requirements for the state in which he or she seeks to be licensed.

[†]Only one tuition-reduction benefit may be applied to tuition and fees.